The New Mexico Academy of Science invites your nomination for the

2024-2025 Outstanding New Mexico Science Teacher Award

Nomination deadline: Friday October 4, 2024

The New Mexico Academy of Science recognizes New Mexico K-12 teachers and Informal Science Educators who provide exemplary opportunities for students' STEM learning.

The Academy honors two outstanding educators each year at the annual NMAS meeting with an engraved plaque and monetary awards. The local section of the American Chemical Society awards classroom materials. Each winner and a guest are provided a hotel room and event registration/meal for the annual award ceremony.

Nominations are open to all grade K-12 teachers and all informal science educators who teach or promote STEM subject(s) in New Mexico. Nominations can come from school administrators, parents or families of students, colleagues, or self. Nominations are accepted at any time on a rolling basis and will be kept on file for consideration by the award committee. If not selected that year, the nomination will be included in the submissions for the following year (a maximum of two consecutive award cycles) with an opportunity for the nominator to update the nomination the second year.
